

RESEARCH METHODOLOGY IN EDUCATION

SIG CONVENORS

Carmel Capewell
Alison Fox

This SIG provides a forum for critical discussion of research methodology in education and for dialogue about innovation. Its interests are in all aspects of research methodology in education, from paradigms and methods to techniques and processes.

The aims of the group:

- to generate new ideas about research methodology in education
- to promote amongst researchers and teachers a critical understanding of research methods in education
- to help develop in the educational research community a context of critical enquiry about methods and processes
