

2021 in Review

Welcomed over 900 delegates to the first virtual BERA Conference

Intervened in policy debates on school assessment, teacher training, climate change and many others

Launched two new awards for undergraduates and early-career researchers, awarding over £5,000

Launched a new race equality policy an ambitious action plan for addressing racial inequities in the educational research community

Published a manifesto on education for environmental sustainability

Released 30 episodes of the BERA Podcast, which were downloaded more than 3,000 times

Launched a landmark long-term project on the state of education as a discipline

Increased our membership to record levels:

2,700+ members

The BERA Blog posted its 1,000th post and received 160,000 unique page views

Provided more than £40,000 in funding for research on race & education

Hosted over 80 events with more than 2,500 attendees generating 300 hours of live content rewatched over 2,500 times